Eric Carmen, the frontman of the Raspberries and the voice behind timeless solo hits like Hungry Eyes, Never Gonna Fall in Love Again, and She Did It, passed away on March 11 at the age of 74. Carmen's ascent to stardom began with the Raspberries, a pop rock band hailing from Cleveland, Ohio, and formed in 1970. The band quickly made a name for itself with their breakthrough hit Go All the Way.
