

So proud

Memory ID: 2B3NCLBMHX

These last several years you have given me you support, encouragement, and strength to take on the challenge of my life. Walking across that stage would not have happened with you. As I begin my career and endure the many challenges of nursing, I will carry you with me through every moment. It was with watching you go to college late in life which helped me to do the same. I thank you and will love you forever.
