My sister was 34 years old when she passed. She was the first in our family to go to college, and she lived her life with a kind of generosity that you don't see often. She would have given the shirt off her back to anyone who needed it. Her favorite color was pink and she brought that same brightness into the lives of everyone who knew her. She was deeply loved by family and friends, and her absence will be felt in ways words can barely capture.
