

~ Clarence B. Jones

Memory ID: 5YC85VLZ4U

Produced by: MemoryBox

Clarence B. Jones, the lawyer, speechwriter and adviser to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., and who helped draft portions of the "I Have a Dream" speech, died May 22 at age 95. A trusted confidant during the civil rights movement, Jones also assisted King with major speeches, legal matters, and strategy. He later became a businessman, educator, and advocate for preserving the history of the movement.

Scan to join this MemoryBox Memory

<https://memorybox.com/5YC85VLZ4U>