

Marigolds

Memory ID: 890510E8FA

Produced by: Jacob Bubb

Marigolds are used to symbolize life, birth, and nature in the Bluest Eye. Claudia and Frieda plant marigolds in their backyard. If they bloom, then Pecola's baby will be born. They symbolize the natural order and a possibility for birth and renewal. However, the marigolds never bloom, and Pecola's baby dies. This is significant because it shows how the natural order didn't work due to the incestual nature of Pecola's pregnancy.
