

Lelia Friend Ridgway

Memory ID: 8US7YMEJDT

Produced by: Beverly White

Lelia lived a very full life. She was an engineer by trade and an artist upon retirement. She collected classic Morgan cars. She renovated a farmhouse in PA and collected many pieces of antique furniture. She was very talented and could knit, spin, sew, crochet, and dye wool. She became very well known for her beautiful hooked rugs, and shared her passion with many people at rug hooking conventions and taught classes from her home in Pennsylvania.
