

Rosa Parks

Memory ID: CTKW7ZYA2G

Produced by: Matt B

Rosa Parks is the one of the most influential African-American civil rights leaders in the history of this country. She is known for being her arrest for civil disobedience on December 1, 1955, in which she sat in front of the bus where only white people were able to sit. This action inspired the actions of many future civil leaders including Malcolm X and Martin Luther King. Parks sadly passed away on October 24, 2005

Scan to join this MemoryBox Memory

<https://memorybox.com/CTKW7ZYA2G>