Ennio Mario "Tony" Valente, 90, resident of Stanhope, NJ for over 50 years, died at home early March 1st, 2024, after a long illness. Born at home in Wallington, NJ, with his twin sister Ida, Tony loved his family fiercely. He was a truck driver, hair stylist, entrepreneur, educator, and investigator. A licensed pilot, he owned a plane and managed an airport. He loved nature, motorcycles, hunting, and was a wonderful cook. He'll be deeply missed.
