Jesse Stout (Dec 8 1981-June 14 2023) was irresistibly lovable. Everyone who knew him knows his humor, his joy, that sparkle in his eye. He was a people person through and through and was never happier than with his best friends and family. Everywhere he went there were people who adored him. His memory is treasured by his daughter, his family, his many friends. We will always miss, you Jesse.
