Alan Mendel

Memory ID: K7S2HX02C9

Produced by: Maureen Mendel

Alan was what people used to refer to as the salt of the earth. He was down to earth and had a very strong moral compass. He was always giving of his time here to help his loved ones, anytime and anywhere. You could always depend on him to help out. A completely unselfish individual. Yes, he was not shy or retiring in his outlook on life. He did like to get a rise out of people. Sarcasm anyone? He will be missed.
