1964-2020 I remember...in the car, we'd sing songs, loud and joyful. Chuckie liked hot dogs and corn. Once, I begged for him to try just 2 green beans; he hid them in his shirt pocket...He won awards, in Iraq, for driving a tank, of all things. I remember that new, sleek 18-wheeler...I wish I'd accompanied him just once cross country. I also remember that he never showed any meanness at all...ever.
