

Willie Nelson at the White House

9/13/1980

Memory ID: RW6ZJLLNG5

Produced by: Josh Lefkowitz

On this day in 1980, country legend Willie Nelson performed on the South Lawn of the White House on the invitation of President Jimmy Carter. The two have a long history together, remaining life-long friends well after the concert. Nelson frequently visited the White Office during Carter's presidency, and Willie's music provided the president much needed relaxation and an escape during his troubled presidency.
