

Janie's Hair

Memory ID: SE4TU98363

Produced by: Kelsey Foxy

Janie's long black hair is a symbol of jealousy of possessions and strong identity. Janie's hair is a white feature and is particularly admired by Mrs. Turner, who believes her partial whiteness makes her worth more. Jody wishes Janie's hair only be seen by himself and wants it covered in the store, where other men look longingly at it. Her hair separates her from other average people because of its beauty, so it is moreover her own identity.
