

Pipa & Cai move to Colorado

Memory ID: U1ERV8RI8Y

Produced by: Penny Goodwill

Pipa and Cai were Costa Rican street dogs - abandoned by their owners. They are now loved members of my family. They had the big adventure of moving to the States.

I tell them they need to give up their jungle ways - they are now American Citizens. Like most immigrants they obey the law and respect the land. They also respect the couch.
