Kathryn Stepanian Garabedian Cotler was born 9/9/1921 in NYC. As those who knew her can attest, her presence was felt like an endless summer, and her smile could brighten a room with no lights. She lived life with a grateful heart and when she left this world on 4/13/20, that heart was held tightly by her closest family and friends--the true loves of her life--as the sun came out and a bird appeared at at her window and together they flew upward.
