Today, July 20, 2017, marks the five-year anniversary of the horrific mass shooting in Aurora, Colorado. Five years since seventy people were shot and twelve killed at the Century 16 movie theater. Today, we remember the issue of firearms in America. Every day that passes brings another 92 lives lost to gun violence. Memorialize the victims of this tragedy and so many other senseless gun deaths by sharing your pics to MemoryBox. Peace!
