

Muhammad Ali

Memory ID: XLBG7YTBRP

Produced by: Matt B

Muhammad Ali is perhaps the most influential figures in history of boxing and sports in general. He is known for being the most dominant boxer of the 20th century and his polarizing personality in the public eye. Outside the ring, he is known for resisting the draft for the Vietnam War because he did not want to hurt innocent people who were not oppressing him like the white people were in America.
